*This menu is only for the Hamamatsu Instrumental Analysis Center.

Application for overtime reservation

【General rule】

- You need the skills and knowledge to be able to use the instrument yourself.
- Initial correspondence to troubles that occurred during overtime use should be made by the user and the laboratory to which the user belongs.
- Applications can only be submitted for dates up to 14 days from today. (Including weekends and holidays and Excluding our closed days.)
- Please do not use this form to make reservations for weekdays from 9:00 to 17:00.
- You can use instruments only after your application has been approved. The approval status can be checked in the Overtime Reservation List and e-mails from the center.
- The approval process is carried out manually on weekdays from 8:30 ~ 17:15. Please submit your application as early as possible, as approval cannot be processed if the time of application is too close to the desired time of use.
- If the approval is not processed when the desired time of use approaches, please contact the centre office in person or by telephone.
